REPORT

The Readers' Club of Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education successfully conducted a Book Review Session on 07 August 2025 at the Advanced Communication Skills Lab. The program aimed at nurturing reading habits, enhancing analytical thinking, and developing communication skills among students.

Students from different branches actively participated in the session by presenting reviews of various literary works, novels, biographies, and motivational books. The activity provided a platform for students to express their interpretations, improve vocabulary, and engage in meaningful literary discussions.

The session witnessed enthusiastic participation, with students confidently sharing summaries, themes, character analysis, and personal reflections. The interaction encouraged peer learning and helped students develop confidence in public speaking.

The programme concluded with encouraging remarks appreciating the students' efforts and emphasizing the importance of reading as a lifelong learning habit. The session proved to be engaging, informative, and successful in promoting literary awareness among students.

The involvement of volunteers was found crucial to the success of the Readers' Club.
