About the University:

In 2024, V. R. Siddhartha Engineering College was declared as an Institution Deemed to be university under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956 by Ministry of Education, Government of India. With a legacy of educational excellence, the institution's UGC-granted autonomy, renewed through 2027-28, provides a strong foundation for its transformation. Guided by a detailed 15-year strategic vision and a 5-year rolling implementation plan, Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education focuses on key areas such as academics, faculty recruitment, student admissions, research, ICT infrastructure, and administration, with specific annual milestones and measurable outcomes. SAGTE, as a responsive educational trust, aligns with the Government of India's target of achieving a 50% GER in higher education by 2035. Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education, Deemed to be University, offers diverse undergraduate and postgraduate programs through its specialized schools, including the School of Engineering (B.Tech., M.Tech.), School of Management (MBA), School of Law, School of Science (B.Sc., M.C.A.), and School of Arts & Commerce (B.Com.). Envisioned to support interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary education for students' holistic development, the university aligns with the aspirations and requirements of NEP 2020 to equip students with the skills and knowledge essential for future growth and societal contributions.

About The Department:

The Department of English was established at the very inception of the institution in 1977 and has since flourished into a vibrant and inspiring centre of learning. From its earliest days, the department has steadfastly upheld the torch of academic excellence, fostering in its students a refined linguistic sensibility and a confident command of communication. Enriched by faculty members drawn from diverse academic specialisations, the department seamlessly blends rigorous scholarship with the art of inspired teaching, thereby elevating the intellectual fabric of the institution with both depth and distinction.

Beyond the classroom, the department radiates vitality through its dynamic involvement in a wide spectrum of initiatives literary and cultural, patriotic and nationalistic, skill-based and memory-based, knowledge-driven and fine-arts inspired. Together, these multifaceted endeavours create an invigorating atmosphere that sharpens intellect, sparks imagination, and nurtures creativity. In doing so, the department shapes its students into well-rounded, thoughtful, and confident individuals, fully prepared to engage the world with grace, wisdom, and artistic sensibility.

About Workshop (Offline):

This One Day Workshop on "Strategic Approaches for High Quality Publications" is designed to strengthen the research and publication skills of faculty members and research scholars. The workshop offers practical guidance on manuscript preparation, journal selection, plagiarism-check tools, and ethical publishing practices. It aims to enhance the quality of research output and support the University's goals of academic excellence and improved publication standards.

About the Resource Person:

Dr. V. Rajasekaran, Associate Professor of English and Former Director of Students' Welfare at VIT Chennai, is an eminent scholar whose academic journey is adorned with remarkable achievements. He is the proud recipient of the prestigious IATEFL Scholarship (Brighton, UK, 2018) and the TESOL Travel Grant (Atlanta, USA, 2019). A seasoned academic traveler, he has explored more than 15 countries and visited nearly every state in India, delivering influential keynote addresses across India, Singapore, Malaysia, and Thailand.

A certified Cambridge BEC Speaking Examiner and a distinguished freelance trainer with the British Council, India, he brings to his work both expertise and eloquence. He has successfully guided six Ph.D. scholars and is currently mentoring seven more. His academic stature is further reflected in his service on the editorial boards of several international journals, his membership on the Boards of Studies in more than ten colleges, and his extensive experience evaluating over fifty Ph.D. viva voce examinations.

A prolific researcher, Dr. Rajasekaran has an impressive repertoire of 160 publications, including six books, fifteen book chapters, thirty Scopus-indexed papers, and numerous articles in reputable international journals. His scholarly engagement extends to participation in over thirty international conferences and the delivery of more than two hundred invited lectures, each marked by clarity, insight, and intellectual depth.

He also curates the widely admired YouTube channel "Prof Dr Rajasekaran", which boasts over 28,000 subscribers, more than 10 million views, and a rich collection of 350+ research-oriented videos in English and Tamil an invaluable resource for students and scholars alike.

Convener's Note

Good morning, beloved Registrar and Head of the Department of English Prof. M. Ravichand, respected Dean Examinations & Evaluations Dr. P.V.R.L.Narasimham, our esteemed Resource Person Dr. Rajasekaran V, distinguished faculty members, research scholars, and all participants of this One-Day Workshop on “Strategic Approaches for High Quality Publications.”

This workshop aims to enlighten the faculty members and research scholars toward improving the quality and impact of their research publications. In today's academic environment, producing meaningful, ethical, and well-structured research is the need of the hour. Through this workshop, we seek to offer practical strategies, insights into journal selection and indexing standards, and hands-on experience that will help participants to strengthen their scholarly writing and publishing skills.

We are delighted to host about 60 participants from 25 institutions across five districts in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. Your presence reflects a shared commitment to advancing research excellence.

I extend my sincere gratitude to our University leadership for their continuous support and encouragement. I also express my warm appreciation to our Resource Person for accepting our invitation.

(I also thank our beloved Vice Chancellor Prof. P. Venkateswara Rao, Pro Vice Chancellor Prof. A. V. Ratna Prasad for their constant support and encouragement in their absence)

I once again thank all of you and wish you a productive and enriching learning experience.

PRESS NOTE

Driving Excellence: Siddhartha Deemed to be University Academy Hosts Key Workshop on High-Quality Publication Standards

Press note: Vijayawada, Kanuru- November 29, 2025 (Saturday)

The Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education, through its Department of English and R&D Cell, successfully organized a significant one-day workshop titled “Strategic Approaches for High Quality Publication” on November 29, 2025 (Saturday). This event was highly pertinent to the academic community, attracting a robust participation of 90 faculty members and research scholars from various institutions, reflecting the growing importance of high-standard research and publication practices.

The workshop commenced with a formal inauguration where dignitaries, including Dr. B. Neelambaram, Asst. Head, Dept. of English, and Dr. P.V.R.L. Narasimham, Dean Examination & Evaluation, Hod of EEE were invited onto the dais. The ceremony featured the lighting of the lamp, followed by the Convener’s Address delivered by Dr. B. Neelambaram, and a subsequent address by Dr. P.V.R.L. Narasimham. The resource person for the workshop, Dr. Rajasekaran V, Associate Professor of English, VIT Chennai, was formally introduced and felicitated, setting the stage for the technical sessions.

The technical program was divided into two main sessions, focusing on essential skills for academic success. Session I comprehensively covered the crucial topic of “Strategies for Writing Quality Research Papers,” delving into vital aspects such as effective journal selection, adhering to indexing standards, and maintaining ethical practices in publishing. This was followed by Session II, which offered a Hands-on Work component, allowing participants to apply the strategies learned. The program concluded successfully with an Interactive Session, facilitating direct engagement and query resolution, and a Valedictory Session where certificates were distributed to all participants. The workshop's focus on practical, high-quality publication strategies ensures its lasting impact on the research output of the participants and was deemed a success by the organizers and attendees alike.

The workshop received high praise from the leadership of Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education. Both Prof. P. Venkateswara Rao, Vice Chancellor, and Prof. A. V. Ratna Prasad, Pro Vice Chancellor, commended the organizers for conducting such an important and timely program. Prof. M. Ravichand, the Registrar and Head of the English Department, expressed his appreciation for the event's success.
