

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

Women's Day Celebrations Report

Organized by: Marketing & PR Club

Venue: Mechanical Block Seminar Hall

Time: 2:50 PM – 4:30 PM

Introduction

The School of Management, through its Marketing & PR Club, organized a grand Women's Day celebration to honor the invaluable contributions of women in society and within our academic institution. The event aimed to create awareness about gender equality, celebrate womanhood, and foster a sense of appreciation and respect for women among students. The celebration brought together faculty members and students in a vibrant and engaging environment filled with enthusiasm and positivity.

Event Poster

Event Highlights

Opening & Anchoring:

The event commenced with an energetic and engaging anchoring by VVD Subramanyam, who maintained the flow of the program and kept the audience entertained throughout.

Cultural Performances:

Students showcased their talents through a graceful classical dance performance reflecting Indian culture and tradition, followed by an energetic western dance performance that added vibrancy and excitement to the celebration.

Fun Games & Activities:

A variety of fun-filled and interactive games were organized for faculty members and students. These activities encouraged participation, teamwork, and created joyful moments filled with laughter and bonding.

Appreciation & Gift Distribution:

As a token of appreciation and respect, gifts were presented to women faculty members. This gesture made the event more meaningful and conveyed gratitude for their continuous support and contribution.

Participation

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The active involvement and energy of the participants contributed to making the event lively and successful.

Vote of Thanks

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks proposed by Hema Sri, who expressed sincere gratitude to the organizers, participants, faculty members, and everyone who contributed to the success of the event.

Conclusion

The Women's Day celebration organized by the School of Management was a grand success. It not only entertained the audience but also conveyed a strong message about the importance of empowering and appreciating women in all walks of life. The event left everyone with cherished memories and reinforced the values of respect, equality, and recognition.

Event Glimpse:

