To consider and ratify the intake of Ph. D. program for the Academic Year 2026-27.

Pro Vice Chancellor presented the following details of the intake of Ph. D. program for the Academic Year 2026-27.

Proposed Ph.D. Intake – A.Y. 2026–27

- The proposed intake for the Ph.D. programme for the Academic Year 2026–27 is 50 scholars.

The proposed intake is distributed as follows:

- Part-Time Scholars: 48
- Full-Time Scholars: 02

It was informed that the total intake of Ph.D. candidates is determined based on the availability of quality Ph. D. candidates who were identified after the written test & interview and also on the availability of number of eligible faculty members. Accordingly, Ph.D. students are allotted in such a manner that each eligible faculty member is assigned at least one research candidate for guidance, wherever possible.

It was suggested to review the UGC regulations regarding Ph.D. eligibility criteria for Research Supervisors and Co-Supervisors, particularly in cases where faculty members are superannuated or nearing superannuation, for scholars' allocation. The current policy is to allocate Co-supervisor in such cases.

Resolution:

It is resolved to ratified the above proposed intake of Ph. D. program for the Academic Year 2026-27.
